As We Gather

As we enter the long Church Year season of Pentecost, the liturgical color green is commonly used for the many weeks ahead. Like many things planted by a gardener or farmer in spring, green shows growth and maturation of that which was planted. In the same way, at this time of the Church Year, we are reminded that that green carries the symbolic importance of our continued need and privilege as God’s people to grow and mature as disciples of Christ through the Holy Spirit given. The Readings in this Pentecost season often remind us of the Early Church continuing to grow and spread to all people, which has continued to us here and now beginning in our Baptism and through all the days the Lord grants us.

Prayer upon entering church

Lord, I love the habitation of Your House and the place where Your glory dwells. In the multitude of Your tender mercies prepare my heart that I may enter Your house to worship and confess Your holy name; through Jesus Christ, my God and Lord. Amen.

Preparation for communion LSB 329

Who can come to communion?

Those belonging to an LCMS congregation are welcomed and encouraged to partake of the Lord’s Supper with us. We do care about the spiritual wellbeing of others present, but ask that you please refrain out of love for this fellowship and speak with the pastor or elder prior to the service.

Introit

Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may contin- | ually come;*
you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and my | fortress.
You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive | me again;*
from the depths of the earth you will bring me | up again.
You will increase my | greatness*
and comfort | me again.
I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, | O my God;*
I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of | Israel.
My lips will shout for joy, when I sing prais- | es to you;*
my soul also, which you | have redeemed.
And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all | the day long,*
for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to | do me hurt.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may contin- | ually come;*
you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and my | fortress.

Collect of the Day

O God, You have prepared for those who love You such good things as surpass our understanding. Cast out all sins and evil desires from us, and pour into our hearts Your Holy Spirit to guide us into all blessedness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Isaiah 65:1-9

I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, "Here am I, here am I," to a nation that was not called by my name. I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and making offerings on bricks; who sit in tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat pig's flesh, and broth of tainted meat is in their vessels; who say, "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you." These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all the day. Behold, it is written before me: "I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their bosom both your iniquities and your fathers' iniquities together, says the LORD; because they made offerings on the mountains and insulted me on the hills, I will measure into their bosom payment for their former deeds." Thus says the LORD: "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all. I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah possessors of my mountains; my chosen shall possess it, and my servants shall dwell there."

Gradual

The word is near you, in your mouth and | in your heart,*
the word of faith that | we proclaim.

For with the heart one believes and is | justified,*
and with the mouth one confesses | and is saved.

Galatians 3:23-4:7

Now before faith came, we were held captive under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise. I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, though he is the owner of everything, but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by his father. In the same way we also, when we were children, were enslaved to the elementary principles of the world. But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God.

Luke 8:26-39

Then they sailed to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. When Jesus had stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he had not lived in a house but among the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered him. And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned. When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. And those who had seen it told them how the demon-possessed man had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

Prayer of the Church

Let us pray for the whole Church of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs. (Each petition concludes with the pastor saying "Lord in your Mercy" and the congregation responding, "Hear our prayer.")

Help Wanted: Trinity and Concordia must, sadly, prepare to say goodbye to our secretary Shannon Stone. We are looking for a new church secretary to begin this summer. Our secretary position is flexible and works about 10-15 hours a week during normal weeks. A few extra hours might be required around the holidays or for funerals. Familiarity with Microsoft Publisher is preferred. If you are interested in this position, please give either pastor or an elder a brief resume.

Concordia LWML Mites: We will now have the LWML Mite box sitting in the narthex we welcome all members including Sunday school students to bring your loose change on any Sunday and place in the can. We thank you for all your help.

NYG Fundraisers: If you would like to help defer the costs of the youth and Shannon going to the youth gathering in July. Please place a donation to help cover the expenses in the colored envelope in the narthex. Make checks payable to: Concordia LYF. The balance remaining is $600. Our total expenses will be an estimated cost of $2,977.00. Thank you advance for your support!

IDW District Convention: June 22-28, 2022 at Camp Okoboji. He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building. (1 Cor. 3:8-9)

Pulled Pork Meal: Thank you for all the support you showed by attending the meal. We had a great turn out. Once again thank you.

VBS 2022: Join Pastor, Shannon, and the high school youth for a fun day at Camp Okobojo on Thursday, June 30 at Camp Okobojo 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. for a lesson, craft, snack, games, and songs. Along with, a short time in the waters of Lake Okobojo. This is open to both Trinity and Concordia youth. Please fill out the enclosed registration form. Bring a sack lunch, swimsuit, towel, water, and sunscreen is needed. RSVP: Thursday, June 23.

July 3 - 8: JULY 4TH FAMILY RETREAT: Family Retreats are designed to provide families an experience that leads toward household & individual faith formation, strengthening family relationships, and creating an environment for rest and relaxation.

CHRISTIAN TV SHOW: Main Street Living is now being broadcast on KCAU Sioux City, KDLT Sioux Falls, WFTC Channel 29 aka “Fox 9 Plus” and MyTV. Air time on both channels is Sunday at 10 am. The first 30 minutes are premastered episodes of the popular “This is the Life” series that was very popular in the 70’s and 80’s. The second half of the program is a modified Lutheran worship service that features a different Pastor each week, from the station’s broadcast area. It features many aspects of church worship; with an Invocation, confession and absolution, The Apostles Creed, the week’s Scripture readings, and a sermon. Hymns are sung by area church choirs. It’s a wonderful evangelistic ministry that shares the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ with the unchurched and shut-in. It is also great to utilize on Sundays you are unable to attend worship online at www.mainstreetliving.com

June 19 “Man in the Middle” – Two men are left with a “secret” when one tells he has terminal cancer. Rev. Benjamin Perkins of Shepherd of Peace Lutheran Church in Sergeant Bluff, IA, delivers the message “Wilderness Worship” based on Isaiah 65:1-9.

June 26 “Return Trip” – The modern-day story of a prodigal daughter. Rev. Jeremy Richert of Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church in Dakota Dunes, SD, delivers the message, “God’s Gracious Patience” based on Luke 9:51-56.

“Until We Meet Again”: My family is relocating back to my husband's hometown area of Sac County. It has been great serving you as secretary. I have been very blessed by filling this position for almost 12 years. If you know of anyone in the area that you would recommend them please have them contact Pastor. I hope to have training completed by July 31. Blessings, Shannon Save the Date: Farewell Potluck will be Sunday, July 17 following Joint Service at Concordia and then gathering together at the Lake Park Community Center.
